North Korean missile threat

In the event of conflict, North Korean missile sites would be a high priority target for U.S. and South Korean forces, leading analysts to believe they would be deployed early, before Musudan-ri missile base they could be disabled April 4: Ballistic missile moved to launch site Missile base Up to Japan 4,000km Sangnam-ri range Yongjo-ri CHINA Guam Around 200 240mm Yongbyon rocket launchers and nuclear 500 long-range NORTH KOREA reactor artillery hidden in bunkers and Demilitarised Zone caves close to DMZ within range of Seoul Pyongyang Seoul 0 38th parallel Northern I imit I ine Maritime Military SOUTH KOREA Demarcation 0 100 miles Line - area claimed by North 4 Tunnels dug under DMZ by North, Military base discovered 1970-90 - capable U.S. base of smuggling 30,000 troops per hour

© GRAPHIC NEWS

Sources: IISS, NTI, Global Security