

Ceremonial funeral for Margaret Thatcher

Britain's former Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher will have a ceremonial funeral – a step short of a state funeral – with full military honours, a tribute usually reserved for senior members of the royal family

1 Funeral parade begins at Chapel of St Mary Undercroft at Palace of Westminster – home to Britain's Houses of Parliament

2 Hearse takes coffin to Church of St Clement Danes – Royal Air Force chapel on the Strand

Apr 17: Procession lined by all three armed forces

Trafalgar Square

Strand

Fleet Street

RIVER THAMES

LONDON

Whitehall

3 Coffin transferred to gun carriage and drawn by Kings Troop Royal Artillery to St Paul's Cathedral

4 Televised service followed by private cremation

200m
650ft

St Paul's Cathedral

