

Women found alive in high-profile abductions

■ Amanda Berry (near right), Gina DeJesus (right), Michele Knight: Disappeared in Ohio aged 16, 14, and 19 respectively, between 2002 and 2004. Found in Cleveland house following bid for freedom by Amanda Berry. School bus driver and his two brothers arrested

■ Elisabeth Fritzl: Imprisoned and raped over 24 years by father Josef Fritzl, who kept her in cellar of family home at Amstetten, Austria. She bore him seven children. Rescued in 2008 after one child was taken to hospital

■ Jaycee Dugard: Snatched on way to school at age 11 by convicted sex offender Phillip Garrido, in California. Held captive for 18 years before being rescued in 2009. Repeatedly raped, gave birth to two daughters

■ Natascha Kampusch: Abducted at age 10 in 1998 and held for over eight years in secret cellar in suburb of Vienna, Austria. Kidnapper Wolfgang Priklopil killed himself hours after she escaped in 2006

■ Elizabeth Smart: Abducted from bedroom of her Utah home in June 2002, aged 14, and repeatedly raped during nine months of captivity by Brian David Mitchell, who was jailed for life in 2011

■ Maria Monaco: Freed in 2008 after being kept prisoner by her family for 18 years for having baby out of wedlock. Italian police found her living in "horrendous hygiene conditions" in rural home north of Naples

■ Unidentified Japanese schoolgirl: Snatched at age nine in 1990, trapped for nine years in house in Kashiwazaki, north of Tokyo. Freed aged 19, in 2000, after health officials called to house by abductor's mother