

July 3, 1938

▲ The British steam train Mallard achieved a new world record speed of 126mph (203kph) for steam locomotives which still stands to this day

1928: John Logie Baird transmitted the world's first colour television pictures

1993: Military leader General Raoul Cedras signed a UN plan to restore democracy to Haiti

2001: Former Yugoslav president Slobodan Milosevic became the first former head of state to be arraigned on war crimes charges at the The Hague

2003: Astronomers announced the discovery of a solar system 90 light years away which could support life