

Turkey protests mount

More than 1,700 people have been arrested in demonstrations in 67 cities across the country

Unrest sparked by protests against plans to redevelop Taksim Square but widens into show of defiance against perceived government authoritarianism

