

Tensions escalate over Gibraltar reef row

Spain is threatening further reprisals in a growing row over the creation of an artificial reef off Gibraltar. Spain, which claims sovereignty over the British territory, claims the reef hinders its fishing boats

SPAIN'S PUNITIVE THREATS

- €50 ($66) fee for vehicles crossing border
- Tax authorities to investigate properties owned by 6,000 Gibraltarians in Spain
- Close Spanish airspace to Gibraltar-bound flights
- Online gambling firms in Gibraltar forced to use Spanish servers and pay tax to Spain
- Increased border checks already causing major delays
