

New Zealand earthquakes

A series of strong earthquakes has hit New Zealand, shaking the capital, Wellington, but there are no immediate reports of major damage or injuries

6.5-magnitude quake struck at 02:31 GMT close to town of Seddon, followed by series of aftershocks

160km
100 miles

TASMAN SEA

South Island

PACIFIC OCEAN

Wellington

Auckland

North Island

Christchurch

