

Today in History

October 13, 2010

▲ All 33 Chilean miners trapped underground for 69 days after a cave-in at a copper and gold mine were winched to safety, watched on TV by over one billion people

54AD: The Roman emperor Claudius died after being fed poisoned mushrooms by his wife Agrippina

1923: Turkey's Grand National Assembly declared Ankara the new capital of the country

1983: The first commercial phone call on a mobile cellular network was made

1993: Guenter Parche, who admitted stabbing tennis star Monica Seles at a tournament in Hamburg, was given a two-year suspended sentence