

Brazil to auction giant offshore oil field

Brazil's government plans to finance state-run oil company Petrobras in an auction of the country's largest-ever oil discovery. The Libra field is estimated to hold up to 12 billion barrels of recoverable crude

