U.S. to curb military aid to Egypt The Obama administration is poised to withhold most military aid to Egypt. The move - three months after a military coup toppled Egyptian President Mohamed Morsi marks a dramatic shift in America's relations with one of its key Arab allies 2014: $1.55bn requested ($1.3bn 2.5 U.S. AID TO EGYPT ($ billions) military aid. $250m economic aid). Fconomic aid 2.212 Deliveries of tanks and aircraft suspended but aid for counter-terrorism Military aid 2.0 and border security will not be affected 1,865 1,821 1,778 1,751 1.702 1,551 1,551 1,548 1,551 1,551 1.5 1.0 U.S. aid (2013 budget requests) Israel $3.1bn Afghanistan $2.5bn Pakistan $2.2bn 0.5 $2.0bn Iraq $1.5bn Egypt 0

08 Source: Congressional Research Service, FAS Picture: Getty Images © GRAPHIC NEWS

09

10

11

12

13

2014

2003

04

05

06

07