

Today in History

November 22, 1963

▲ U.S. President John F. Kennedy was assassinated in Dallas, Texas. The gunman, Lee Harvey Oswald, targeted Kennedy's motorcade as it drove through the city

1913: Benjamin Britten, English composer of classical music, was born

1943: Leaders of Great Britain, the U.S. and China met in Cairo to discuss the war against Japan

1975: King Juan Carlos was sworn in as Spain's first monarch for 44 years

1998: A videotape of a terminally ill man being given a fatal injection was shown on U.S. television. Dr. Jack Kevorkian was later charged with first degree murder