

Today in History

November 27, 1893

▲ Following a 20-year campaign for women's suffrage, a general election in New Zealand was the first in the world in which women were allowed to vote

1919: A massive meteor landed in Lake Michigan in the United States

1992: Austria's famous Lipizzaner horses were saved when fire damaged Vienna's Hofburg Palace

2007: Zimbabwe's dire economic situation led three international airlines to end direct flights to Harare

2009: Golfer Tiger Woods' life unravelled following a minor traffic accident, which led to costly sex scandal revelations