

Mexico faces new storm

Hurricane Raymond, a category 2 storm, is gaining strength as it swirls toward the Acapulco region, already reeling from the damage caused by Tropical Storm Manuel in September

Mon-Tues: Raymond forecast to hover 80km off shore, bringing potentially heavy rains, before veering sharply west