

Today in History

December 3, 2008

▲ Over 100 countries signed a treaty banning cluster bombs. Notable absentees included the U.S., China, Russia, India, Pakistan and Israel

1923: Legendary operatic soprano Maria Callas was born

1961: A painting by Henri Matisse was rehung after hanging upside down for 46 days at the Museum of Modern Art in New York

1971: Pakistani air strikes on India led Delhi to enter the war of independence between East and West Pakistan

1993: Angola's government and UNITA rebels agreed a ceasefire in their 18-year war