

Egypt worst in Arab world for women's rights

Despite the Arab Spring, women's rights in the region's most populous nation have suffered, according to a recent survey which revealed they face sexual violence, trafficking, and a rolling back of personal freedom. Comoros topped the ranking, only falling short on political representation

1 Comoros	6 Tunisia	14 Somalia
2 Oman	7 Algeria	15 Palestinian Terr.
3 Kuwait	8 Morocco	16 Lebanon
4 Jordan	9 Libya	17 Sudan
5 Qatar	10 UAE	18 Yemen
11 Mauritania	19 Syria
12 Bahrain	20 Saudi Arabia
13 Djibouti	21 Iraq
	22 Egypt

WOMEN AND:

Politics	Family	Economy	Society	Violence	Reproductive rights
1 Djibouti	Comoros	Comoros	Bahrain	Algeria	Comoros
2 Comoros	Somalia	Oman	Qatar	Comoros	Mauritania
3 Oman	Jordan	Kuwait	Kuwait	Tunisia	Djibouti
20 Egypt	Saudi	Syria	Sudan	Sudan	Syria
21 Bahrain	Iraq	Saudi	Syria	Iraq	Lebanon
22 Saudi	Syria	Palestinian Territories	Iraq	Egypt	Egypt

Source:
Thomson Reuters Foundation

Picture: Getty Images

© GRAPHIC NEWS