

Riga supermarket roof collapse

Over 30 people, including three rescue workers, have been killed by the collapse of a supermarket roof in the Latvian capital Riga. As rescue efforts continue, an inquiry has been launched into building standards. The Maxima store won a national architectural prize in 2011

Source: Wire agencies

© GRAPHIC NEWS