

Star cars at the Detroit Motor Show

Volvo XC Coupe Concept: Showcases new range of turbocharged four-cylinder petrol and diesel engines

BMW M3 saloon and M4 coupe : New-generation M cars with TwinPower turbocharged straight-six. Zero-to-100km/h sprint takes 4.1 seconds with six-speed manual and 3.9 with seven-speed dual-clutch. Top speed of 280km/h (174mph)

Lexus RC-F coupe: Will go head to head with BMW M4. Packs new V8 with 466PS (460hp/343kW)

Ford Mustang: Brand-new stallion with 2.3-litre EcoBoost four-cylinder 309PS (305hp/227kW) engine and top speed of 249km/h (155mph)

Chevrolet Corvette Z06: Supercharged version of Stingray's 6.2-litre V8 promises 628PS (620hp/462kW)

Audi Q1 Concept: Possible prototype of new Q1 crossover due to go on sale in 2016

Mercedes C-Class: All-new compact range will include hybrid 2.1-litre diesel with electric motor, capable of 3.25 litres per 100km (72.4mpg)

MINI John Cooper Works Concept: All-new range-topping sportier model with longer wheelbase and wider track

