

Boko Haram militants in village massacre

Militants from the extremist Islamist group Boko Haram – some dressed in military uniform – killed around 200 people after raiding towns in northeast Nigeria. Hundreds have fled to the regional capital, Maiduguri

Emergency rule since May 2013

Multinational task force comprising troops from Nigeria, Niger, Chad

Boko Haram attacks

Baga, Feb 15: At least 10 killed as gunmen loot Lake Chad fishing village

Konduga, Feb 12: Militants kill 51 people, destroy 70% of town

Izghe, Feb 16: Up to 100 massacred in mainly Christian village

