

Ukraine's wealthiest people

Despite Ukraine's export-led economy plunging deeper into recession throughout 2013, its multibillion-dollar oligarchs got richer by an average of 25%, according to Kiev-based Focus magazine

Population of Ukraine
45.59 million*

Focus magazine's wealthiest 200 people†
(0.0004% of population)

If population of Ukraine is represented by two-metre disc, then richest 200 Ukrainians would appear as 0.8mm circle

1 Rinat Akhmetov, age 47.
System Capital Management.

Steel and coal magnate and owner of Shakhtar Donetsk soccer club. Holds sway over large number of pro-Yanukovich parliamentarians

$16.83bn

2= Igor Kolomoyskiy, 51.

Co-owner of Privat, financial-industrial group – oil products, ferro-alloys and other metal products, mass media

$3.65bn

2= Gennadiy Bogolyubov, 50.

Co-owner of Privat. Owns mansion in London's exclusive Belgrave Square

$3.65bn

4 Dmytro Firtash, 48.
Group DF.

Banking, chemical industry and gas oligarch

$3.33bn

5= Vadim Novinskiy, 50.

Smart Holding. Oil and gas, construction, supermarkets

$3.27bn

5= Viktor Pinchuk, 53.

Interpipe Corporation. Pipe production, mass media, finance. Pinchuk is engaged in legal battle in London against Privat's Kolomoyskiy and Bogolyubov for alleged breach of contract and trust over ownership of KZhRK iron ore company

$3.27bn

7 Kostyantyn Zhevago, 40.
FiK. Finance, mining and smelting. Only oligarch to openly support opposition leader Yulia Tymoshenko

$1.92bn

8 Konstantin Grigorishyn, 48. Energy Standard Group

$1.81bn

9 Yuriy Kosyuk, 45.
MHP. Agriculture

$1.52bn

10 Viktor Nusenkis, 59.
Donetskstal Group. Coal and coke

$1.51bn

Viktor Yanukovich, 63. President of Ukraine since 2010. Not in rich list

$150m†

36 Oleksandr Yanukovich, 41.

Eldest son of President Yanukovich has seen his wealth double between 2012 and 2013

$196.5m

The "Family"
18 politicians – mostly close allies from president's ruling Regions Party – entered rich list in 2013, having amassed joint fortune of more than $600 million

*World Bank (2012 figures); †Excludes private property, real estate, and cars; ‡Estimate by Austrian newspaper Format

Pictures: Associated Press, Alexandria Hypatia, UIG and AFP via Getty Images, Russian News