

Ukraine deal

Ukrainian President Viktor Yanukovich and opposition leaders have signed a deal to end three months of unrest

■ 2004 constitution – which limits presidential powers and gives more authority to parliament – to be restored within 48 hours

■ Government of national unity will be formed within 10 days

■ Constitutional reform balancing powers of president, government and parliament will be started immediately and completed by September

■ Presidential election will take place following adoption of new constitution, but no later than December 2014

■ Independent investigation into violence and human rights abuses of recent months to take place. Government puts death toll from violence this week at 77