

Russian officials hit by Western sanctions

The European Union, United States and Canada have announced travel bans and asset freezes against several Russian and Ukrainian officials seen as having played a key role in Crimea's secession from Ukraine

EU (21 officials targeted)

United States (11)

Canada (10)

RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT

Dmitry Rogozin
Russia's deputy prime minister – most senior figure targeted by sanctions

Valentina Matviyenko
Head of Russia's upper house

Andrey Klishas
Member of Russia's upper house

Leonid Slutsky
Head of CIS parliamentary committee

Sergey Glazyev
Adviser to President Vladimir Putin

Sergey Zheleznyak
Deputy speaker of state Duma

Vladislav Surkov
Aide to President Vladimir Putin

MILITARY

Aleksandr Vitko
Commander of Russia's Black Sea Fleet

Sergey Aksyonov
Prime minister of Crimea

Vladimir Konstantinov
Head of Crimean parliament

Viktor Yanukovich
Former president of Ukraine

UKRAINIAN OFFICIALS

Note: Selected officials shown CIS = Commonwealth of Independent States

Pictures: AP, Getty Images, Western Military District press service, A. Savin, Facebook © GRAPHIC NEWS