

Today in History

April 28, 1924

▲ Kenneth Kaunda, first president of Zambia, was born. He led the nation after independence in 1964, remaining in power until he lost multi-party elections in 1991

1789: Fletcher Christian and the crew of HMS Bounty staged a mutiny against Captain Bligh, who was cast adrift

1919: The Treaty of Versailles imposed huge reparations on Germany after the First World War

1969: President De Gaulle of France resigned after voters rejected major government reforms in a referendum

2001: Wealthy U.S. businessman Dennis Tito became the world's first space tourist