

Ukraine starts crackdown on separatists

Kiev has begun operations to retake government buildings seized by pro-Russia separatists in the east. Military action is concentrated in the Donetsk region, where many towns affected by the protests are located

- Pro-Russia forces occupying official buildings
- Russian military buildup identified by NATO
Strength: 40,000 troops

