

Venues:

No-fly zones will be enforced over stadiums during all 64 matches

World Cup security fears

Despite significant efforts to improve safety in Brazil, security fears remain over surging street crime and recurring protests over the cost of staging the World Cup

Fortaleza
Estádio
Castelão

Natal
Estádio
das Dunas

SECURITY MEASURES

Border security:

Over 30,000 army, navy and air force troops deployed to crack down on drug and arms trafficking on Brazil's 16,900km land borders

Host cities: 150,000 military and police backed up by 25,000 private guards expected to ensure security in all 12 stadiums

500km
310 miles

Israeli Hermes 900 drones will patrol skies

FAVELA INCIDENTS

- 1 Mar 21, Manguinhos: UPP commander shot and wounded in clashes
- 2 Apr 5, Mare: Nearly 3,000 federal troops occupy one of Rio's most dangerous drug-trafficking favelas
- 3 Apr 24, Pavao-Pavaozinho: Man shot dead as protests erupt after professional dancer allegedly beaten to death by police

SECURITY IN FAVELAS

Since 2008, Rio de Janeiro has established Police Pacification Units (UPPs), to drive out gang leaders from favelas – shanty towns

Violence has flared as drug dealers clash with police over loss of turf – and police are accused of using excessive force

Rio now has 37 UPPs serving 257 communities and 1.5m people

MURDER RATES FOR SELECTED COUNTRIES Per 100,000 pop. (2012)

South Africa	31.0
Colombia	30.8
Brazil	25.2
Mexico	21.5
Nigeria	20.0
U.S.	4.7
UK	1.0 (2011)

