

Afghan preliminary result

Preliminary election results show former finance minister Ashraf Ghani in the lead for the Afghan presidency, but officials said no winner can be declared because millions of ballots are still being audited for fraud

Ballots from about 7,000 of nearly 23,000 polling stations to be audited. Final results expected July 24