

Today in History

September 11, 2001

▲ Hijacked aircraft crashed into the landmark twin towers of New York's World Trade Centre and the Pentagon in Washington in the worst terrorist attack in history

1984: British servicemen were revealed to have been deliberately exposed to radiation during atomic tests in Australia in the 1950s and 60s

2006: Hamas and Fatah agreed to form a united Palestinian government

2010: Greek police used tear gas as 20,000 protesters marched through Thessaloniki over austerity measures

2012: America's ambassador to Libya was killed in an attack on the U.S. consulate in Benghazi