

Ukraine claims capture of 10 Russian soldiers

Ahead of a key meeting between the Ukrainian and Russian presidents, Ukraine says its forces have captured 10 Russian soldiers some 50km south-east of the rebel-held city of Donetsk. Russia says the soldiers crossed the border by mistake

Russia plans to send second aid convoy to rebel-held areas

Mariupol: Government forces ousted rebels from major port in June after weeks of fighting

Aug 25, Markyne: Ukraine military says it halted column of 10 tanks and two armoured infantry vehicles that crossed from Russia