

Security ramped up ready for NATO summit

Some 9,500 police officers from across Britain are providing security for the NATO summit in Wales, which is due to be attended by more than 150 heads of state and officials

No-fly zone: Light aircraft banned below 3,000m

Celtic Manor Resort
Summit venue surrounded by 3m-high steel fences

Cardiff city centre
Barriers erected around Cardiff Castle and Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama – venues for NATO working dinners

Tredegar House
Reception for hundreds of international media delegates

Type 45 destroyer HMS Duncan

