

Today in History

November 10, 1957

▲ The Great Wall of China opened to tourists for the first time. Lying northwest of Beijing, this part of the wall was built in the Ming Dynasty, between 1368 and 1644

1914: During World War I the Australian cruiser Sydney attacked and crippled the German cruiser Emden off Sumatra

1969: Long-running American TV series Sesame Street, featuring Jim Henson's Muppets, made its debut

1983: The working of a computer virus was demonstrated for the first time

2009: A South Korean warship exchanged fire with a North Korean naval vessel, the first such incident in seven years