

Mayon volcano threat

Nearly 24,000 people have been evacuated from the island of Luzon in the Philippines after an active volcano began erupting

EVACUATION ZONE

Mount Mayon

Billowing smoke and spewing lava and heated boulders

Mayon is classic stratovolcano (or composite), considered to be world's most perfectly formed symmetrical volcano

