

Second U.S. Ebola case announced

A second Texas healthcare worker, who treated the first patient in the U.S. to be diagnosed with Ebola, has tested positive for the disease.

The diagnosis comes as the WHO warns that West Africa could face up to 10,000 new Ebola cases per week in early December

EBOLA PATIENTS OUTSIDE WEST AFRICA* (as of Oct 15)

EBOLA EPIDEMIC IN WEST AFRICA**

Deaths: 4,447 Cases: 8,914

Senegal | 1 case (no deaths)

Nigeria | 8 deaths, 20 cases

Guinea | 778 Deaths, 1,350 Cases

Sierra Leone | 930 Deaths, 2,950 Cases

Liberia | 2,316 Deaths, 4,076 Cases

**Confirmed, probable and suspected cases.

Total numbers as of Oct 14. Individual countries as of Oct 10