

Pakistan border bombing

India and Pakistan have carried out the daily military ceremony at their only land border crossing, a day after dozens were killed in a suicide bomb attack

Nov 2, 6:03pm:
At least 61 people, including 10 women, eight children and three security personnel, killed in attack at Wagah crossing

■ Bomb explodes near checkpoint on Pakistani side. Pakistani Taliban claim responsibility

■ Plan to suspend flag-lowering ceremony abandoned – would have been first time ritual called off since Indo-Pakistani war of 1971