

South Australia bushfires

Firefighters in South Australia are battling out-of-control bushfires ahead of hotter weather and stronger winds expected later in the week. The blazes are the worst since 1983 when 75 people lost their lives

Townships under threat

Source: Country Fire Service

© GRAPHIC NEWS