

Australian Open 2015: Men's preview

1 Rank

1 Novak Djokovic (SRB) Age: 27

Four-time champion needs only one more Australian Open title to surpass records of Roger Federer and Andre Agassi. Won World Tour Finals for third straight year in 2014

4 Stan Wawrinka (SUI) 29

Defending champion defeated both Djokovic and Nadal to claim first major title – looking to build on memorable 2014 season and retain spot amongst tennis elite

2 Roger Federer (SUI) 33

Four Australian Open titles between 2004 and 2010. 17-time Grand Slam champion hoping to maintain resurgent form and better four successive semi-finals in Melbourne

5 Kei Nishikori (JPN) 25

Part of “new generation” of stars set to shine in 2015 – became first Asian man to reach Grand Slam singles final at U.S Open, falling to fellow first-time finalist Marin Cilic

PLAYER RECORD	Djokovic	Federer	Wawrinka	Nishikori
2014 win-loss	61-8	73-12	39-17	54-14
2014 titles	7	5	3	4
Career titles	48	82	7	7
Grand Slams	7	17	1	0