

Manhunt ends for Charlie Hebdo suspects

The hunt for the two suspects in the Charlie Hebdo killings has ended in an industrial unit near Charles de Gaulle airport. Heavily-armed police are also attending a shooting at a Jewish shop in Paris

Jan 7, Paris: Attack on Charlie Hebdo office leaves 12 dead. Attackers escape scene by car.

Jan 8, Montrouge: Policewoman killed in related attack

Jan 9, Porte de Vincennes: Five hostages taken at shop

Jan 7, Charleville-Mézières: Third suspect, Hamyd Mourad, surrenders to police

Jan 8, Villers-Cotterets: Suspects rob petrol station, flee into forest on foot

Reims: Several arrests made

Cherif (left) and Said Kouachi

40km
25 miles

Charles de Gaulle airport

FRANCE

PARIS

Jan 9, Dammartin-en-Goële: Suspects, trailed in stolen car, take refuge on industrial estate with female hostage

Kuehne & Nagel warehouse

Creation
Tendance
Découverte

Aldi

CTD Printing
Employees: five