

Today in History

February 1, 2014

▲ The Mumbai Monorail, India's first monorail since independence, was officially inaugurated. Around 20,000 people queued to use it on its first day of operation

1840: The world's first dental college opened in Baltimore, Maryland

1920: Canada's North West Mounted Police were renamed the Royal Canadian Mounted Police

1965: U.S. singer P.J. Proby was banned by Britain's BBC Television after splitting his trousers during his act

2000: America recorded its 107th month of continuous economic expansion, its longest-ever period of growth since 1969