

Fighting intensifies in eastern Ukraine

Battles are raging between government forces and Russian-backed rebels for control of a strategic transport hub in eastern Ukraine as the death toll continues to climb following the collapse of ceasefire talks

