

IS militants find foothold amid Libya chaos

Libya, virtually a failed state in recent years, is providing an opportunity for the so-called Islamic State to expand from its stronghold in Syria and Iraq to establish a foothold closer to European shores, just 300km away

