

Dozens killed in Libya bomb attack

Multiple bomb blasts in the eastern Libyan town of al-Qubbah have killed at least 40 people, according to an army spokesman who blamed Islamist militants for the attack

RECENT VIOLENCE

■ Feb 15: Video emerges apparently showing beheadings of 21 Egyptian workers – all Coptic Christians – seized in December and January from town of Sirte by Islamic State militants

■ Feb 16: Egyptian air force bombs targets in Islamist stronghold of Derna, killing at least 50 people

■ Feb 20: Three car bombs explode in town of al-Qubbah, targeting petrol station, police station and home of parliamentary speaker Agila Salah. Attacks viewed as retaliation for Egyptian air strikes