

Star cars at the Geneva Motor Show

Honda Civic Type-R: Production version of 260km/h-plus hot hatch. Price: Expect €41,000

Audi R8: Second-generation R8 supercar to debut at Geneva. Price: Around €135,000

Ferrari 488 GTB: 3.9-litre, twin-turbo V8 delivers 0-100km/h in 3 seconds flat. Price: €200,000-€250,000

Renault Kadjar: New crossover shares many components with Nissan's Qashqai

Ford Focus RS: Hatchback boasts sophisticated four-wheel-drive system to give optimum traction

McLaren P1 GTR: Petrol-electric powertrain delivers 735kW. Downforce of 660kg at 240km/h. Price: €2.6 million

Aston Martin Vantage GT3: Special edition of 100 supercars. Price: €341,500

Skoda Superb: Aiming to be best fleet-class car. Price: €27,000-€47,800

Vauxhall Viva: Opel/Vauxhall revives iconic 1970s Viva name with new city car. Price: €11,000

Mercedes-Maybach Pullman S600: 6.5m-long limo – powered by 390kW, 6-litre V12 turbo – to carry world leaders around in luxury. Price: €500,000 (excluding armour)

Kia Picanto: Updated city car with 1.0-litre, three-cylinder engine. Price: From €10,800

