

Foreign troops battle Nigeria's Boko Haram

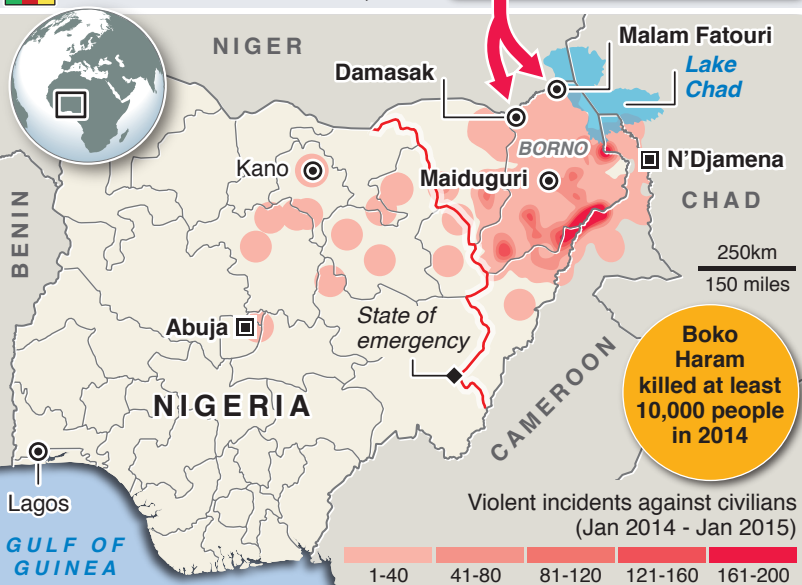

Thousands of African troops are engaged in a major offensive against Boko Haram inside Nigeria, stepping up a regional push against the extremist group which has pledged allegiance to the Islamic State

Multi-National Joint Task Force (MNJTF)

Fighting Boko Haram in Nigeria

	Nigeria	3,500		Niger	750
	Chad	3,500		Benin	250
	Cameroon	750	Total	8,750

Mar 9: Forces from Chad and Niger kill around 300 militants as they gain control of Damasak and Malam Fatouri. Around 10 Chadian soldiers killed

Boko Haram
killed at least 10,000 people
in 2014