

Party pledges: National Health Service

■ Conservative:
Extra £2bn “down payment” into National Health Service plan – drawn up by NHS bosses – calling for an extra £8bn a year above inflation by 2020

- Recruit 5,000 more doctors
- Everyone in England to be able to see a GP seven days a week by 2020
- £300m to be spent each year, for four years, modernising GP surgeries across UK

■ Labour: Spend an extra £2.5bn a year – over and above Conservative plans – across UK by 2020

- Recruit 36,000 extra NHS staff including 5,000 care workers, 3,000 midwives, 8,000 GPs and 20,000 more nurses
- Guarantee that patients will get a GP appointment within 48 hours and will wait no longer than one week for cancer tests and results by 2020
- £330m for cancer treatment

- SNP: Reduce number of senior managers in NHS by 25% over next parliament. Real-term increases in year-on-year NHS spending

- Plaid Cymru: Recruit 1,000 extra doctors to NHS Wales – use foreign doctors until new generation of Welsh doctors are trained

- Green Party
- Greens: Dedicated NHS Tax. More funds for community healthcare. Stop privatisation. Abolish prescription charges

NHS spending (2013 prices, £ billions)

■ Liberal Democrats:
An extra £1bn for NHS every year

■ Guarantee therapy treatments within 18 weeks for conditions such as depression

■ Want cross-party review of future of NHS funding

■ UKIP: Extra £3bn per year in NHS funding

■ Stop any further use of PFI (private finance initiative)

■ All visitors and migrants must have NHS-approved medical insurance as a condition of entry to UK

■ £200m to end hospital parking charges in England