

A sepia-toned portrait of Josip Broz Tito, President of Yugoslavia, looking slightly to the left. The image is framed by a thin black border.

Today in History

May 4, 1980

▲ Josip Broz Tito, President of Yugoslavia, died aged 87. He led the Partisans in World War II, and was the first Communist leader to challenge Soviet dominance

1925: The Geneva Conference for the Supervision of the International Traffic in Arms began

1945: U.S. troops captured Hitler's country retreat at Berchtesgaden

2005: Paleontologists in Utah reported the discovery of a new species of birdlike, feathered dinosaur

2010: Pablo Picasso's Nude, Green Leaves and Bust fetched $106m at auction, the most expensive work of art sold to that date