

Second quake hits Nepal

A major earthquake has struck Nepal, killing at least 53 people, less than three weeks after more than 8,000 people died in a devastating quake

