

Today in History

June 23, 2006

▲ Harriet, thought to be one of three giant tortoises collected by Charles Darwin on the Galapagos Islands in 1835, died in Australia aged around 175 years

1960: The first oral contraceptive pill, Enovid, was approved by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration

1985: All 329 passengers and crew were killed when an Air India Boeing 747 crashed off the coast of Ireland after a bomb exploded on board

1993: A British professor solved Fermat's Theorem, which had puzzled mathematicians for 350 years

2010: Anthrax killed at least 30 hippos in a Ugandan game park