

Drones showcase at Paris Air Show

Aerospace companies from the U.S., Europe and Israel will exhibit some of the latest unmanned aerial technology at the 51st Paris Air Show

◀ MALE UAS: Airbus, Dassault and Finmeccanica seeking to build next generation drone to meet European armed forces' requirements. Israel discussing cooperation on project

MALE =
Medium-altitude
long-endurance

UAS = Unmanned
Aerial
System

Drones not to scale

▶ Predator B "Guardian": Unarmed, extended-range maritime patrol variant of U.S. Air Force's combat-proven MQ-9 Reaper. Endurance 27 hours

SeaVue marine surveillance radar in ventral radome

▶ Predator C "Avenger": Stealthy, jet-powered drone under development, capable of long-range reconnaissance and precision strike missions

▶ Predator XP
Unarmed, export version of MQ-1 Predator

▶ Advanced Cockpit GCS
Ground control station for remote piloting of Predator drones

Watchkeeper: Modified
version of Israeli-made Hermes 450

ARMY