

Today in History

July 26, 1945

▲ Britain's wartime prime minister Winston Churchill was ousted in a general election just weeks before the war ended. Labour's Clement Attlee became prime minister

1875: Swiss psychiatrist Carl Gustav Jung, founder of "analytical psychology", was born

1965: The Maldiv Islands in the Indian Ocean, a British protectorate since 1887, became independent

2005: The space shuttle Discovery blasted off from Cape Canaveral, the first shuttle flight since the Columbia disaster in 2003

2009: India launched its first nuclear submarine, the INS Arihant