

Most liveable cities

Melbourne has been named the world's most liveable city in The Economist's annual study for the fifth year running

Rank out of 140 cities, 100 = ideal

Rank	City	Score
1	Melbourne, Australia	97.5
2	Vienna, Austria	97.4
3	Vancouver, Canada	97.3
4	Toronto, Canada	97.2
=5	Adelaide, Australia	96.6
=5	Calgary, Canada	96.6

Least liveable

136	Tripoli, Libya	40.0
137	Lagos, Nigeria	39.7
138	Port Moresby, PNG	38.9
139	Dhaka, Bangladesh	38.7
140	Damascus, Syria	29.3

Based on 30 factors related to infrastructure, stability, education, healthcare and environment

Picture: Newscom

© GRAPHIC NEWS