Egypt gas find shakes up Israel's energy plans The discovery of the largest ever gas Leviathan: Discovered in 2010. field in the Mediterranean off the contains 17th cubic feet of gas. coast of Egypt is threatening to sink Zohr threatens lucrative deals Israel's fledgling gas export bonanza between Israeli companies and Western counterparts operating Zohr field: Discovered by Italian in Egypt, which may no longer energy group Eni. May hold up need to import supplies to 30 trillion cubic feet of gas (5.5 billion barrels of oil equivalent), and help meet Egypt's gas needs LEBANON for decades Haifa Shorouk Block Tel MEDITERRANEAN Aviv West SEA Bank Dumyat Port Gaza Arish Said Strip EGYPT ISRAEL Sdom SINAI PENINSULA Cairo Suez O 50km 30 miles Gas exploration areas Israeli Natural gas pipeline operated by Eni in Egypt exploration areas in operation or planned Sources: ENI. EIA © GRAPHIC NEWS