

Today in History

October 16, 1945

▲ The UN established the Food and Agricultural Organisation (FAO), with the aim of raising global levels of nutrition and improving standards of living

1847: Charlotte Bronte published her first novel, Jane Eyre

2000: Yemen denounced a terrorist attack on the U.S. warship USS Cole as a “premeditated criminal act”

2002: A new library in Egypt, the Bibliotheca Alexandrina, was opened on the site of the original destroyed by fire in the fourth century AD

2006: U.S. and Russian scientists discovered a new chemical element with the atomic number 118